

Don't let a brain injury throw you under a bus!

Learn about brain injury: how to avoid, treat and live with one.

In Soldotna one day only!
Call and reserve an appointment today!

What Does The Bus Do?

We are here to help, listen and learn what you need.

We provide education for brain injured persons, family, supporters and providers.

We provide a variety of materials on brain injury prevention, identification and treatment.

We help build resources so you can find help in your own community.

Here is your ticket to ride!

We are in your community - we are hard to miss!

Where: Independent Living Center
47255 Princeton Ave #8, Soldotna, AK
262-6333

When: Tuesday, August 15 10 AM-4 PM

Local Contact information: Maggie Winston
907-262-6337

The Brain Bus is a project of the Alaska Brain Injury Consortium, a non-profit organization whose mission is to connect and empower Alaska communities to support brain injury recovery, education, and prevention.

Trust
Alaska Mental Health
Trust Authority

The Brain Bus is, in part, funded by a Partnership Grant from the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority

Contact Us: AlaskaBrainBus.com akbraininjury@gmail.com Instagram: @alaskabrainbus